HOCKEY IS ONE OF THE ROUGHEST SPORTS BEING PLAYED IN

When it Comes to a Genuine Old Yankee Scrap This Ice Sport Makes Football Look Real Mild.

Fyou haven't seen hockey it's because you have been dozing around the streets of New York and letting some real thrills of blue lightning run loose right under your nose. When it comes to excitement, busted chins and a genuine old American scrap, this sport of cutting up ice with steel runners, elbows and nose makes football, baseball, basketball and tennis look like a six-day walking contest against time.

To thoroughly establish the supremacy, end of nine innings would be between of hockey as an exponent of the wild the pitcher.

Any time, though, that you think it take a game fellow to be a no keying who can hit 300, just go up term of two weeks with the Wanderers there some night and or the Crescents. At the end of that time he would be turned into a man or the scrap heap, and it's even money either way.

These pants are all seat, by way, as the legs are only from four six inches long. Whenever each keylte has picked out his own nose it legs they start all over again and high dive act is repeated. That is high dive act is repeated. The various military or there will be a number o short sprint there will be a number o short sp the high dive act is repeated. That is technically called "cross-checking." and the crowd of beaming and beturred enthusiasts on the side lines clap their hands together in ecstasy and yell. "Bravo!" bravo!"

"Bravo! bravo!"
For rooting you can't beat that much. Science and team work play a big part in hockey, and it's preity to watch. The rules, however, are very simple. You get it in a minute, but there is great room for improvement in the way the sport is conducted from the viewpoint of a fan of the bleachers. For instance, a crowd of 19) rooters from the Polo Grounds or American League Park could go up there to St. Nicholas Rink come night and turn it into a howling success. Hockey rooters need a lot of coaching. Would you believe it? There was one little fellow put out of the game four times last night, and not some knowledge of the rine as instance, a crowd of 10 rooters from the Polo Grounds or American League Park could go up there to St. Nicholas Rink come night and turn it into a howing steess. Hockey rooters need a lot of coaching. Would you believe it? There was one little fellow put out of the game four times last night, and not once did he tell the referee that he had "bats in his belfry" or he "ought to be teacher in a school for he "limi." Not as poter yelled "Would be hand not even one little root one of the remarks so necessary to the success and not even one little root of the remarks so necessary to the success and these were on decisions. A lot of space was wasted there. It would have been so easy for an ardent enthusiast to have made him feel bad by yelling, "the lush league for yours!" or "I guess that will hold you for a while!" On every side the opportunity for such humorous and effective remarks was allowed to slide by.

But the way they punish those lockeyites for violating the rules is awful! For giving a fellow the bump while eyites for violating the rules is awfull. For giving a fellow the bump while rounding a curve a player named Williams was ordered off the field for one minute. As he leaned back there and rested, lines of pain and humiliation in his face could plainly be seen from the pless box aloft. On the level, that rule of putting fellows cut of the game would be a scream to Chuck Conners. Under the rules, the player can be ordered off for a term sometimes extending to three minutes, but nobody else is put in his place. When his term of penal servitude has expired he is most important servitude has expired he important servitude has expired he important of the cuts too many down at one swipe he is sent right back to the pen to serve and to serve another than the event was one of the most excented.
